SPRINGWATER-ELMVALE FARMERS' MARKET ANNOUNCES NEW SEASON

SPRINGWATER TOWNSHIP / January 26, 2010 – The Springwater-Elmvale Farmers' Market committee is already looking forward to its 2010 season, when it will reopen with a new date and time.

Springwater-Elmvale Farmers' Market – Opening Day 2009

Starting May 15th, 2010 the Farmers' Market will run from 8:00 am – 1:00 pm on Saturdays until October 9th, 2010.

Thanks to the consideration of the Springwater Township Council, the location for the Farmers' Market will remain the same – the Knox Building Parking Lot at 33 Queen St. W. in Elmvale.

Vendors are still needed for the Market, and rates and applications are available upon request. The Market's guiding principal is "Make it, Bake it, or Grow it within Simcoe County" and they encourage all vendors to follow suit.

The committee is also looking for people who are interested in volunteering a few hours for a community project while enjoying the outdoors and meeting new people. Various volunteer positions are available, including Volunteer Market Manager.

Heather Sewell of the Farmers' Market Committee visits the Market site as the committee prepares for the upcoming season.

For more details, contact the committee at focuselmvale@gmail.com. For Farmers' Market information, please contact Heather Sewell at 705-322-3484. For vendor information, please call Bob Simmons at 705-322-1715.
