Death Investigation UPDATE

(SPRINGWATER TOWNSHIP, ON.) – Shortly after 6:00 a.m. on June 3rd, 2010, members of the Huronia West Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police, Springwater Fire Department and Simcoe County Paramedic Service responded to a call that a male had fallen from a Canadian Pacific Railway (CPR) bridge just south of County Road #27.

An initial OPP investigation revealed that earlier two males had been walking on the CPR bridge that spans across a ravine to allow train traffic, when one of the males a 23 year old from Barrie, fell from the bridge and died.

Police believe at this time that this tragic death is not suspicious.
