

Register of Property of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest
Listed (not designated) Properties as per subsection 27(1.2) of the Ontario Heritage Act

Municipal Address	Private or Public Lands	Ward	Historical Name	Cultural Heritage Value of Interest of the Property and Description of Heritage Attributes of the Property
30 Amelia Street	Private	1	John Copeland House	Built in 1932 and recognized as a significant architectural resource.
90 Doran Road	Private	5		Home of Chas. Stewart for a period of time. Stewart was elected to Alberta Legislature 1909 and was Minister of Municipal Affairs in 1912. He was Premier of Alberta in 1917.
91 Doran Road	Private	5		Midhurst United Church
102 Doran Road	Public-Township Owned	5	Midhurst Pioneer Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
2873 Flos Road Eight West	Private	2	Knox Presbyterian Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
3595 Flos Road Four West	Private	2	Briggs Family Burial Site	This property has potential cultural heritage due to its association with the Briggs Family Burial Site and the existing part of the house was the store of Flos.
1910 Flos Road Ten West	Private	2	St. Thomas Anglican Church Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
1768 George Johnston Road	Private	3	Minesing Union Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
3451 Grenfel Road	Private	4		Grenfel United Church
3 Houden Street	Private	1		This property has potential cultural heritage value due to its Victorian architecture.

Municipal Address	Private or Public Lands	Ward	Historical Name	Cultural Heritage Value of Interest of the Property and Description of Heritage Attributes of the Property
7 Lent Street	Private	1	Carnahan House	Built of Headly Carnahan (a partner and decorator who first came to Elmvale in 1896 to work on the Copeland/Scott house in 1899, with a kitchen added a year later.
12 Maria Street	Private	1	Vincent House	Brick house built for William Vincent, miller at the Copeland Mill, in 1894.
Part of Lot 51, Concession 2, Being Part 1, 51R-33205	Public-Township Owned	2	Swan Family Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
1696 Penetanguishene Road	Private	3	Dalston General Store	Circa 1850s-1860s
1734 Penetanguishene Road	Private	3	Dalston United Church and Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
34 Peter Street	Private	1	Ganton House	A brick house built in 1897 for Mrs. Albert Ganton.
17 Queen Street East	Private	1	C.S. Burton House	Built for the Burton family early in the 1880s and later enlarged and bricked.
22 Queen Street East	Private	1		St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. Built in 1894, the architects were Kennedy and Thompson
23 Queen Street East	Private	1	Train/Thompson House	Built about 1955 and listed for its architectural significance.
28 Queen Street East	Private	1		St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. Built in 1894, the architects were Kennedy and Thompson
30 Queen Street East	Private	1	Cook/Graham House	Built by and for Martin Cook, builder, about 1881 and subsequently brick-clad.
94 Queen Street East	Private	1	Elmvale Presbyterian Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
106 Queen Street East	Private	1	Elmvale Presbyterian Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
18 Queen Street West	Private	1		This property has potential cultural heritage value due to being part of the historic commercial section of the village of Elmvale.

Municipal Address	Private or Public Lands	Ward	Historical Name	Cultural Heritage Value of Interest of the Property and Description of Heritage Attributes of the Property
22 Queen Street West	Private	1		This property has potential cultural heritage value due to being part of the historic commercial section of the village of Elmvale.
33 Queen Street West	Public-Township Owned	1	Knox Building	This property has potential cultural heritage value due to being part of the historic commercial section of the village of Elmvale.
72 Queen Street West	Private	1	J.H. Smith House	Built for J.H. Smith about 1896.
74 Queen Street West	Private	1	Walton House	Built for C.D. Walton, about 1890.
112 Queen Street West	Public-Township Owned	1	Elmvale Hydro Service Building	An unusual and important survival, built for the village to architectural plans which still exist.
1476 Rainbow Valley Road	Private	3	O'Reilly Homestead	This property has potential cultural heritage value as being an example of an early log cabin built around 1865.
7 Simcoe Street	Private	1	Walter Graham House	Built by John R. Graham, mill-owner, for his brother Walter Graham, tailor, in 1898.
1444 St. Vincent Street	Public-Township Owned	5	Midhurst Union Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
29 Stone Street	Private	1		This property has potential cultural heritage value due to its architecture.
1980 Sunnidale Road	Private	4	Grenfel Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
14401 Victoria Road	Private	2		Built in 1849 with a round arch windows and centre round window.
2894 Wilson Drive	Public-Township Owned	4	Christ Church Cemetery	This property has potential cultural heritage value as a cultural heritage landscape.
58 Yonge Street North	Private	1		An unusual house built of hand formed cement blocks.